

Isaac Clark

An entry on February 1849 listed Bishop Clark as receiving tithing. Isaac Clark was born on May 7, 1806 in Bowling Green, Warren County, Kentucky. He was the son of Robert Clark and Ruth Moore. He was one of seven children.

Isaac married Mary Margareta Timmons in about 1835. Mary was born on May 5, 1804 in Madison County, Kentucky. She was the daughter of Stephen and Elizabeth Timmons.

After joining The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, they moved to Missouri and then Columbus, Adams County, Illinois where Catherine Ruth was born on February 1, 1838.

When the Saints left Nauvoo, the Clark's wintered in the Winter Quarters Fifteenth Ward. He was listed as the Bishop as of December 31, 1846 with 111 members in the Ward.

After they left Winter Quarters, they moved to Big Pigeon before they joined the George A. Smith/Dan Jones Company. The Company left from Kanesville on July 14, 1849. They reach the Salt Lake Valley between October 26 and 30, 1849.

The 1850 U. S. Census enumerated Isaac and Mary in Green River, Utah Territory. Those listed are Isaac, age 43; Mary, age 45; Catherine, age 14; and William A., age 2.

The family moved to Ogden, Weber County, Utah Territory by 1851. William married Diana Herrick on June 10, 1851. The couple had one child, Isaac Lemuel Clark, born on September 10, 1853.

Isaac died on January 24, 1854 in Ogden. Mary died on December 12, 1878. Both are buried in the Ogden City Cemetery.
